

THOMAS A. GOLDWASSER RARE BOOKS
5 Third Street, Ste. 530
San Francisco, CA 94103

www.goldwasserbooks.com

Tel. (415) 292-4698
email: MAIL@ GOLDWASSERBOOKS.COM

19TH Century: MEDICINE IN AMERICA

1. A popular essay on the value and present condition of the practice of vaccination : embracing a consideration of all the points important to be understood by the heads of families, and particularly of re-vaccination By a Physician. New York: Henderson Greene, 1835. First edition. 8vo, unbound. 38 pp. [31540] $125
2. A Psychiatric Milestone. Bloomingdale Hospital Centenary 1821-1921. New York: Privately printed, 1921. First edition. Cloth, 220 pp. Near-fine copy. [31622] $25
3. [Arthur, T.S.]. Random Recollections of an Old Doctor. Baltimore: William Taylor and Company, 1846. First edition. 132 pp., stitched, not bound. Tear in last leaf. [31562] $150
4. Bartlett, Elisha. The History, Diagnosis, and Treatment of Typhoid and of Typhus Fever, with an Essay on the Diagnosis of Bilious Remittent and of Yellow Fever. Philadelphia: Lea and Blanchard, 1842. First edition. Publisher's cloth, mild marginal stain on title page, otherwise a very good copy. [31980] $150
5. Bigelow, Henry J. An Introductory Lecture Delivered at the Massachusetts Medical College November 6th, 1849. Boston: David Clapp, 1850. First edition. Original printed wrappers, titled "A lecture introductory to the course of surgery," 24 pp. Some spotting. Inscribed "with the respects of H.J. Bigelow." [31744] $250
6. Blanton, Wyndham B. Medicine in Virginia in the Eighteenth Century. Richmond: Garrett & Massie, 1931. First edition. Pictorial cloth, fine copy. 449 pp. Volumes on the 17th and 19th centuries were also published. Garrison-Morton-Norman 6588. [31970] $150
7. [Boardman, Andrew]. A History of the New-York Kappa Lambda Conspiracy. New York: William Stuart, 1839. First edition. Wrappers, 32 pp., very good. A rare pamphlet relating to the secret society of physicians in New York City. In an Advertisement it is stated "The following Essays from the 'Medical Examiner,' a department of the New-York Weekly Whig, are republished connectedly in compliance with earnest solicitations."
[31542] $250

8. Burdell, Harvey ; and John Burdell. Observations on the structure, physiology, anatomy and diseases of the teeth. In two parts. New York: Gould and Newman, 1838. First edition. Stitched, not bound. Mild browning and foxing. Illustrated. 96 pp. [31959] $250

9. Cabanis, P.J.G. ; Jourdan, A.J.L. An Essay on the Certainty of Medicine. [with] Historical and Critical Observations on Syphilis by A.J.L. Jourdan Translated from the French by R. LaRoche. Philadelphia: Robert Desilver, 1823. First American edition. Modern cloth, leather spine label. 119, 108 pp. Mild discoloration to text paper. [31973] $100

10. Carmichael, Richard. An Essay on Venereal diseases, and the uses and abuses of mercury in their treatment. Illustrated by drawings of the different Forms of venereal eruptions. With practical notes, &c. By G. Emerson, M.D. Philadelphia: Judah Dobson and A. Sherman, 1825. Second American edition. Modern cloth, leather label. 360 pp., 4 plates (colored stipple engravings). Mild browning but an excellent copy. [31965] $200

11. Carpenter, George W . Carpenter's family medicine chest dispensatory : containing a select catalogue of drugs, chemicals, and family medicines, with the properties and doses of each article most approved of in domestic medicine : to which is appended a concise description of diseases, with directions for the treatment of such as are unattended with serious consequences, showing also the best immediate measures to be adopted, in those disorders and accidents which are destructive to life, when the physician is not at hand, or until his assistance can be procured / . Philadelphia: George W Carpenter's Chemical Warehouse, 1835. First edition. Original boards, cloth back, spine label perished, slight wear. 328 pp. Slight foxing but a near-fine copy internally. [31543] $250

12. Cullen, William. A Treatise of the Materia Medica. New York: Printed by L. Nichols & Co., 1802. Second American edition. Two volumes in one. Contemporary calf, worn, upper cover detached, internally very good. Ownership signatures of Henry Ingersoll, and Joseph A. Dennison ("bought of H. Ingersoll"); bookplate of Dr. Charles Dennison, 1908. [32018] $100

13. Davis, Nathan Smith. History of the American Medical Association, from its organization until 1855. To which is appended biographical notices, with portraits of the presidents of the association, and of the author. Edited by S. W. Butler. Philadelphia: Lippincott, Grambo, 1855. First edition. Original cloth, spine extremities a bit chipped, mild foxing. Inscribed "With respects of the Author". Another pencil inscription "Dr. John Gill. Comp." Bookplate and stamp from Northwestern University Medical School Library, under bookplate of Irving S. Cutter, who was dean of the medical school 1925-1941. Davis was a founder of both the American Medical Association and of Northwestern University. Garrison-Morton-Norman 10103 [31559] $350

14. Davy, John. Researches, Physiological and Anatomical. In two volumes. London: Smith, Elder, 1839. Two volumes, publisher's dark green cloth, blocked in blind and gilt. Volume 1: 455 pp., 13 lithograph plates. Volume 2, 480 pp., 11 lithograph plates. Plates foxed, otherwise a near-fine copy. With the bookplate of George Brinley, (not the American collector) and an inscription to Edward H. Brinley, M.D. from his father, dated 1853. Edward Brinley graduated Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia, in 1853. He later was on the faculty at Trinity College, Hartford.

The brother of the great chemist Sir Humphrey Davy, whose works he'd edited, in nine volumes, John Davy's researches here include the torpedo, poisonous snakes of Ceylon, the temperature of the insane, and many other topics.
[31914]        $300

15. Dunbar, John R.W. An essay on the structure, functions, and diseases of the nervous system. Philadelphia: J. Dobson, 1828. First edition. Stitched, unbound, foxed. [31954] $200

16. Ewell, Thomas. Statement of Improvements in the theory and practice of the science of medicine. Philadelphia: Printed for the author by John Bioren, 1819. First edition. Half leather, rubbed and faded 168 pp., some browning, closed tear in one leaf. With Weir Mitchell's bookplate. [31963] $150

17. Francis, John W. An Inaugural Dissertation on Mercury. New York: Printed by C.S. Van Winkle, 1811. First edition. Stitched, removed, trimmed a bit close, otherwise very good.. 56 pp. Presentation copy, inscribed by the author to the physician and U.S. Senator, Samuel L. Mitchill. [31977] $300

18. Francis, John W. Letter on the cholera asphyxia, now prevailing in the city of New-York. New York: George P. Scott, 1832. First edition. Stitched, unbound. 35 pp. Light foxing. [31955] $150

19. Gale, T. Electricity or Ethereal Fire...the Theory and Practice of Medical Electricity... Troy: Moffitt and Lyon, 1802. Second edition. Old calf, worn, hinge cracked but cords holding. 285, [3] pp. [31985] $100

20. Huxham, John. An Essay of Fevers. To which is now added, A Dissertation on the malignant, ulcerous sore-throat. Third edition. London: J. Hinton, 1757. Contemporary calf. xvi, 336 pp. small piece torn from top of title page, wear to binding, no endpapers, internally very good. Early ownership signatures including that of American physician John C. Otto (1774-1844). The first and second editions were both published in 1750, and both had 288 pages. "Huxham's best work....This book included the first use of the word 'influenza' by an English physician," Garrison-Morton 2201 referring to the first edition. [31983] $200

21. Ingalls, William. An essay on the Ganglionic System of Nerves in the cavity of the cranium. Boston: 1832. First edition. 16 pp., removed from a binding. Presentation inscription from the author. [31953] $200

22. Ingalls William. On Scarlatina in a letter addressed to his son;... Boston: 1837. First edition. 16 pp., removed from a binding. 39 pp. [31962] $75

23. Jackson, James. A report founded on the cases of typhoid fever or the common continued fever of New-England which occurred in the Massachusetts General Hospital from the opening of that institution in September, 1821, to the end of 1835 /. Boston: Whipple &

Damrell, 1838. First edition. Stitched, not bound. 95 pp., 1 leaf. Presentation copy, inscribed to Dr. Doane. Jackson was the author of "The Pharmacopoeia of the Massachusetts Medical Society," 1808, the first state pharmacopoeia issued in the United States. [31960] $250

24. Mann, James. Medical sketches of the campaigns of 1812, 13, 14. To which are added, surgical cases, observations on military hospitals; and flying hospitals attached to a moving army. Dedham: H. Mann, 1816. First edition. Modern cloth, leather spine label. 318 pp. Foxing and toning, light to moderate, otherwise very good. "Mann was an army surgeon who served three years in the Revolution and another three years in the War of 1812. His chief writing was the Sketches, which gives probably the best and most vivid picture of early nineteenth-century American military life. The chapter on surgery (pages 206-33) is especially invaluable for its first-hand descriptions of the treatment of wounds"--Rutkow, The History of Surgery in the United States, GS4. "The primary record of medicine during the War of 1812," Garrison-Morton-Norman 2161.1; Howes M258. [31964] $750

25. Mayo, Herbert. Outlines of Human Pathology. Philadelphia: Printed by Adam Waldie, 1839. First American edition. Original calf, rubbed, joints worn, mild browning and light stains. "A thorough study of pathological conditions throughout the body, Mayo's treatise provides many illustrative case histories" (Heirs of Hippocrates). Contemporary ownership signature of D.M. Tindall, M.D. [31972] $150

26. Mott, Valentine. Travels in Europe and the East, embracing observations made during a tour through Great Britain, Ireland, France, Belgium, Holland, Prussia, Saxony, Bohemia, Austria, Bavaria, Switzerland, Lombardy, Tuscany, the Papal States, the Neapolitan Dominions, Malta, the islands of the archipelago, Greece, Egypt, Asia Minor, Turkey, Moldavia, Wallachia, and Hungary, in the years 1834, '35, '36, '37, '38, '39, '40, and '41. New York: Harper, 1842. First edition. Original brown cloth, endpapers foxed, but an excellent copy. xv, (18)-452, 16 pp. publisher's catalogue. Mott was a prolific and skilful surgeon and teacher. After seven years in Europe, he returned to New York, where he helped to found what would become the New York University School of Medicine. He was elected President of the New York Academy of Medicine in 1849. "Mott was an outstanding figure in American surgery during the first half of the 19th century. A pupil of Ashley Cooper, he particularly distinguished himself in vascular surgery and in operations involving the bones and joints," Garrison-Morton, p. 691. [31913] $250

27. (Mott, Valentine; Delafield, Edward ; et al). Narrative of Privations and Sufferings of United States Officers and Soldiers While Prisoners of War in the Hands of the Rebel Authorities. Philadelphia: Printed for the U.S. Sanitary Commission by King & Baird, 1864. First edition. Cloth, binder's ticket of O.A. Dorman, New Haven. 283 pp, 4 plates, Very good condition. [31968] $250

28. Paine, Martyn. An examination of a review contained in the British and Foreign Medical Review of the Medical and Physiol. Commentaries. New York: Hoplins & Jennings, 1841. First edition. Stitched, not bound. 96 pp. Signed presentation copy to Dr. Doane. Payne defends his "Medical and Physiological Commentaries". Foxing. [31958] $75

29. Rafinesque, C. S. (Constantine Samuel). Medical flora, or, Manual of the medical botany of the United States of North America : containing a selection of above 100 figures and descriptions of medical plants, with their names, qualities, properties, history, &c. : and notes or remarks on nearly 500 equivalent substitutes. Philadelphia: Atkinson and Alexander, 1828, 1830. First edition. Two volumes, uncut in period style quarter green morocco, 100 plates printed in green. A fine, washed, copy, with plates 50 and 53 provided in excellent facsimile. "Beginning in 1818, with his 2,000-mile tour to the west of the Alleghenies, Rafinesque made important botanical explorations, mostly on foot, as far as Kentucky and Illinois" (DSB). "Rafinesque was a great botanist, conchologist, archaeologist, and economist,... This work describes for the first time a number of American Indian remedies. Garrison-Morton 1849; Sabin 67457 [31966] $3,750

30. Ricketson, Shadrach. Means of preserving health and preventing diseases : founded principally on an attention to air and climate, drink, food, sleep, exercise, clothing, passions of the mind, and retentions and excretions ... New York: Printed by Collins, Perkins, 1806. First edition. Old calf. viii, 298 pp., one leaf. Closed tear in A2, binding a bit rubbed, internally very good. [31984]$100

31. Rush, Benjamin. Medical inquiries and observations. Volume 1 [only]. Philadelphia: Thomas Dobson, 1794. Second edition . Contemporary calf, with leather label. 8vo, 338 pp. Binding a bit rubbed, but sound, light browning. Early medical woodcut on pastedown. [31967] $125

32. Rush, Benjamin. Sixteen introductory lectures to courses of lectures upon the institutes and practice of medicine, with a syllabus of the latter : to which are added two lectures upon the pleasures of the senses and of the mind with an inquiry into their proximate cause, delivered in the University of Pennsylvania. Philadelphia: Bradford and Innskee, 1811. First edition. Contemporary sprinkled calf, with leather label. 8vo, 455 pp. Wear to extremities, long closed tear on title page. Internally fairly fresh, with light browning. Early ownership marks of R.E. Kerr, M.D. and his gift of it to Francis King, in 1845. [31912] $450

33. Smith, Joseph Mather. A discourse on the influences of diseases on the intellectual and moral laws. New York: Daniel Adee, 1848. First edition. Stitched, not bound, 35 pp. Tideine stains. [31957] $100

34. Stillé, Alfred. The Unity of Medicine. An introductory lecture to the course of theory and practice of medicine, in the medical department of Pennsylvania College. Delivered Oct. 14, 1856. Philadelphia: T.K. and P.G. Collins, printers, 1856. First edition. Stitched, removed. Fine. [31979] $75

35. Thacher, James. American Modern Practice; or a simple method of prevention and cure of diseases. Boston: Ezra Read, 1817. First edition. Contemporary calf, rubbed, lacks front endpaper, mild browning. 744 pp. [31981] $100

36. Tongue, James. An inaugural dissertation....A attempt to prove that the Lues Venerea was not introduced into Europe from America, [etc.]. Philadelphia: 1801. First edition. Removed from a binding. 72 pp. Inscribed by the author. [31956] $75

37. Watts, John ; Valentine Mott; Alexander H. Stevens. The Medical and Surgical Register: consisting chiefly of cases in the New York Hospital. New York: Collins and Co, 1818. First edition. Contemporary blue paper boards, title hand lettered on (partially defective) spine. "The Medical and Surgical Register, of which only two parts were issued, is the first volume of case reports published by a United States hospital, and is one of the cornerstones in the history of American medicine, as well as one of the scarcest of medical periodicals" (Heirs of Hippocrates 1850). Garrison-Morton 2942 (Mott's first ligation of the innominate artery). The second part of the Register was not issued until 1820. [31741] $1,250
38. Wilson, J. ; Meade, William. Pharmacopoeia Chirurgia: or a manual of Chirurgical Pharmacy....with a translation of the whole of the formulae an additional notes and illustrations by Dr. William Meade. Philadelphia: Thomas Dobson, 1818. First American from the third London edition. Contemporary boards, calf spine defective, internally a fine copy. [32017] $100
39. Wood, George B. An Address delivered before the Philomathean Society of the University of Pennsylvania July 26, 1826. Published by Order of the Society, 1826. First edition. Stitched, removed. 30 pp. Very good. Wood was then the chair of materia medica at the University of Pennsylvania. [31974] $50
40. Wood, George B. Address of George B. Wood, M.D., President of the American Medical Association delivered at the late meeting in Detroit. Philadelphia: T.K. and P.G. Collins, printers, 1856. First edition. 14 pp. Original printed wrappers, removed from a binding. [31978] $50
41. Wood, George B. Address to the Medical Graduates of the University of Pennsylvania , delivered March 26, 1836. Philadelphia: Printed by L.R. Bailey, 1836. First edition. 36 pp. Stitched, removed. [31975] $50